

Juliana Brandt is an author and kindergarten teacher with a passion for storytelling that guides her in both of her jobs. She lives in her childhood home of Minnesota, and her writing is heavily influenced by her travels around the country and a decade of living in the South. When not working, she is usually exploring the great outdoors. She is the author of The Wolf of Cape Fen and A Wilder Magic. Find her online at julianalbrandt.com.

As a teacher, Juliana understands the importance of every minute in the school day. Nothing can be wasted! She's very glad you're interested in hosting her with your class, and please know how much she'll treasure the time she spends with your students.

At this time, Juliana offers multi-grade presentations for grades 3-7. Because she's a teacher, her yearly schedule can be tricky to work around for in-person and live virtual events. She currently offers pre-recorded videos that can be tailored specifically to your needs. She can speak on anything from life as an author, writing and editing tips, the ins-and-outs of publishing, persevering in a difficult business, to suggestions for living a creative life! She is happy to provide pictures from her own experiences as an author, such as screenshots of the researching, writing, or revising and editing process.

Juliana also videos specific to The Wolf of Cape Fen. This includes screenshots taken from writing inside the book. She can also work through parts of her Reader's Guide, if desired.

Come summer, Juliana offers in person and virtual presentations and workshops. More details regarding these are forthcoming.

Currently, her rates are as follows:
